105 viktor vinogradov on u.s.-japanese milit cooperation. on his recent visit to tokyo, weinberger demanded that japan step up militarist preps. it is no coincidence that usa is paying such close attention to its ally in far east. it believes that japan is an ideal springboard for possible milit operations against asian countries. what's more reagan admin has resolute consent from nakasone's govt for further escalating american armed might in japanese islands themselves. (5 min: enginter 1531)

106 anatoliy aleksandrov on situation in kampuchea, re sihanouk's unga address: strong yearning of sihanouk for self adulation is well known and it is even more deplorable that un has been used for his absurd speeches. situation in kampuchea has now been returned to normal after crimes of pol pot whom sihanouk now befriends. nevertheless as result of behind scene activities by washington and its allies representative of regime that has long been forgotten still retain kampuchea's un seat. it is quite clear that ldrs of khmer emigration cannot count on support from kampuchean. as soviet un delegate said kampuchean have determined their own political system. (6 min: enginter 1531)

134 soviet way of life: re constitution day, on 7th oct, marking adoption of new sov constitution six yrs ago, action on some constitutional rights was highlighted. after an account of housing legacy of prerev govt and scale of problem as result of war, superhuman effort to provide more accommodation was described. new building is at peak rate, and some 50 million ppl have housewarmings every five yrs, but 20 percent of urban population still live in what are considered unsatisfactory condistions. it is hoped to solve problem completely soon. emergency treatment of heart attack was described to illustrate free medical aid available. then mikhael taratuta expounded on right to express criticism, another constitutional right. role of press was noted, and several examples given. (engna 0001)
